WELCOME TO 2012

The Cambridge Gardens P&C would like to welcome everyone back for 2012. We hope you had a great time over the holidays.

A big hello and welcome also goes out to our new Kindergartners and their families. We enjoyed meeting many of you on Friday at our Tea and Tissues morning and look forward to meeting many more throughout the year.

Thank you to those P&C members who helped out and who provided such delicious goodies.

MYTHBUSTERS BY RACQUEL

During my year spent encouraging (some would say pestering) people to become part of our P&C and participate in the school, I discovered some very interesting beliefs held about P&C Associations which I hope a little MythBusting can change.................

Myth #1 I don’t have time to commit to the P&C.
- Whether you are free everyday or only 1 hour during the whole year you can still make a useful and appreciated contribution. Any amount of participation is welcome even if it is just you sharing your ideas.

Myth #2 I’m not one of those P&C UBER mothers who bake.
- Hahahahahaha! We are not the CWA so your scones will never be judged for their colour or fluffy texture. We have those who bake from scratch, those who swear by Betty Crocker, those who pull into the supermarket on the way to school for a bag of donuts and those who don’t have time for any of that. Don’t let that stop you taking part.

Myth #3 P&C’s are like High School Cliques.
- When you join any association it is quite possible you will stumble upon a few like minded people there for the same reason you are. Over time those people can become friends. So come along and meet some new friends or better still, bring your friends with you!!!!!!!!
